MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Parents/Carers,

What a first half term of the year!!

When Senior Leaders and I planned this term, we did not anticipate being able to fit in all the amazing activities that have taken place during Autumn 1. This term several trips have taken place (despite the minibus breaking down), inspirational speakers have been in school, extracurricular activities have taken place, Forest School continues across the school and charity events have been held - all additional to the day-to-day learning that has taken place.

In class this half term it has been pleasing to see how seamlessly the children have returned to learning expectations, particularly the way in which children have embraced our school passion for reading. Homework continues to play a big part in school life and I am pleased to note that engagement in homework is continuously improving - so thank you for your support.

Additionally, as a school, we had the pleasure of participating in two school inspections from Ofsted and IQM. Both processes were conducted fairly, rigorously and in significant detail, however, we feel that the outcomes truly reflect our 'school journey' and I look forward to sharing the outcomes of these inspections in due course.

On a personal note, I would like to thank everyone for my birthday celebrations, it was a wonderful surprise and I truly appreciated it.

Finally, I hope you all have a restful half term and please look out for our extended day offer (see Mrs Burt's feature in this newsletter) on Wednesdays after half term - this will be a great way to extend our children's learning opportunities.

Regards

Mr York

MATHS

Maths at Hunsbury Park continues to be an area of enjoyment and we want to work in partnership with you to share that fun factor at home.

All children have access to Times Tables Rockstars and Numbots. Both are a fun, free and enjoyable way for children to learn their times tables and number bonds.

Many children have shown significant improvements due to the extra time and dedication they are putting in to these resources. During our weekly celebration assemblies, children are rewarded for their participation and effort on these apps with certificates and prizes. Keep an eye out for our half termly winners and prizes before we break for half term!

Please continue to support your child's learning at home with this online provision and we hope to see many more names on our leader boards. Ensure you contact your class teacher if you require your log in details.

WRITING

This year, we have some new English exercise books. We are very proud of them and have designed them to help the children with their writing. They have been especially printed for our school with our name and logo on the front. They have the marking code printed on the inside front cover to support the children with how they need to improve their writing. They have the Common Exception words for their phase printed on the inside back cover so they can refer to them and use them in any English lesson.

The biggest change though, is that they have yellow spaces to help our children size their letters correctly. We have already seen a massive improvement in children's handwriting and staff are also able to model this on our new matching yellow lined flipchart paper as well.

If you would like to know more or perhaps get a photocopy of this paper to help your child practise at home, please speak to your child's class teacher.

Assistant Headteacher

READING

As well as our diverse literacy spine and curriculum, which include all protective characteristics, we have also been involved with 'Black History Month' this term. If you would like to continue to learn more about this at home, here are some recommended reads.

10 Amazing Autumn Activities

1

Autumn Strolls

The days may be getting shorter and the weather chillier, but autumn is the perfect time to venture outside with the family. So wrap up warm and explore some of the region's best parks and woodlands (and best of all - it's FREE).

2

Arty Autumn Crafts

Don't forget to collect pine cones, leaves and fallen twigs during your outdoor adventures to use in an art project when you get home. Make a colourful leaf collage, try your hand at leaf rubbing or make an acorn animal. For more creative ideas, such as making a mini-scarecrow or leaf bunting, take a look at www.activityvillage.co.uk/autumn-crafts.

3

Go Bonkers with Conkers

Visit a local park or woodland where there are horse chestnut trees and collect the best conkers you can find. Peel back the prickly shell, make a hole through the middle, thread with string and let the battle commence!

4

Get the Garden Ready

Spring might seem a long way off but there is nothing nicer on a fresh autumn weekend than spending a few hours in the garden digging holes with your children and popping in some bulbs. There are loads of easy to grow plants and October is the month for planting ones that will flower the following spring. So grab your bulbs and trowel, find a patch of soil and get planting.

5

Puddle Jumping

"There's no such thing as bad weather, only bad clothes." With that in mind, wrap up warm, pull on your wellies, grab an umbrella and venture outside. Have lots of fun jumping in (muddyl) puddles and running through the rain before heading home for a hot chocolate and a warm bath.

6

Wacky Races at the Beach

Our coastline is beautiful all year round so have fun collecting shells, plodding in the sea (in wellies) and building sand castles. To keep warm, organise the family in a game of Wacky Races; challenge the children to run across the sand in different ways - backwards, side steps, hopping, jumping or giant strides.

7

Cook Up Halloween Treats

Halloween themed foodie treats are great fun to prepare (and eat!) and most are easy to make so even the littlest kitchen helper will be able to join in. 'Mummy Pizzas', 'Ghostly Strawberries' and 'Witches Hat Ice Cream Cones'.

8

Go on a Treasure Hunt

Autumn is such an interesting time to have an outdoor treasure hunt and it's a great way of getting children interested in nature. Turn a walk into an exciting adventure by setting children the challenge of finding different shaped leaves, a dewy spider's web, a mushroom, conkers, acorns etc. Don't forget to take a camera or notebook to record your findings.

9

Pumpkin Carving

Parental supervision required! Create a menacing masterpiece ready to scare away ghosts and ghouls on Halloween.

10

Have a Pyjama Day

There's nothing better on a cold and wet day than staying indoors and having a pyjama day. Make an indoor den, get out the board games, play hide and seek, have an indoor picnic, watch a movie or curl up with a book.

A big thank you to all of you who supported the book fair in school recently.

We raised a really impressive £820.00.

The school will receive commission shortly which we will spend on books for our library and classrooms.

Once again thank you for your continued support.

Online Safety Parent Workshop
Wednesday 19th October 2022

Thank you to everyone that attended the Online Safety Parent Workshop this week.

It was great to see so many parents committed to supporting their children by attending to find out more about online safety and what they can do to keep their children safe online at home.

For those who were unable to attend, please look at the online safety post on Class Dojo which has a link to the presentation full of useful information and websites you can access for support.
