Hours: 30 hours per week 8.30am – 3.30pm 39 weeks (38 weeks + 1 week training days)

This job description sets out the major duties and other tasks associated with the stated purpose of the post. The duties of the post could vary from time to time resulting from new legislation, changes in technology or policy changes and in this case appropriate training may be given to enable the post-holder to undertake this new/varied work.

This job description may be amended at any time following discussion between the Headteacher or other senior staff and the member of staff, and will be reviewed annually.

ALL STAFF are expected to:-

- set an example of personal integrity and professionalism
- fully support the ethos and promote the agreed vision and aims of the school
- promote the importance of safeguarding
- contribute to creating a school environment in which everyone can thrive

CORE PURPOSE

To play a crucial role in supporting the Headteacher and staff by providing a range of opportunities for all children in the classroom, playground and elsewhere around the school. In addition to the duties listed below, carry out such duties as reasonably requested by the Headteacher.

MAIN DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- To work with the Class Teacher (and/or relevant staff) to meet the needs of pupils within the class group.
- To actually engage in continuous two-way communication with the class staff on observations about individual or groups of children.
- To support teachers or lead pupils' learning when pupils are either working individually or in groups.

- To be involved in the planning, delivery, recording, review and development of pupils' learning whether pupils are in a class, group or individual learning situation.
- To help prepare teaching areas, including the classroom, hall and practical areas prior to the start of the day/session, and to help ensure their tidiness at the end of the day/session.
- To take responsibility for small groups or pupils, both within and outside the classroom, and on school visits under the direction of the Class Teacher.
- To assist with the preparation, cleaning and maintenance of teaching resources, including helping to maintain resource cupboards.
- To work under the guidance of colleagues and other professionals in meeting the specific needs of identified pupils.
- To be involved in whole school discussion regarding curriculum, behaviour and other matters relating to school policy and development as appropriate.
- To support the teaching staff in the general supervision and welfare of all pupils within school, whether in the classroom, around school, the playground or out in the community, during school hours.
- Assist children to develop "self-help" skills focusing on mental health and wellbeing.
- To support a member of the teaching staff on playground duty (on a rota basis).
- Understand and appropriately implement safeguarding policies and procedures.
